Explanatory Note:

1. The CAA is aware that training organisations and individual licence holders may have difficulties in completing training and checking during the period of the COVID-19 infection and has issued this exemption.

2. Any questions or queries regarding the application of this exemption should be made, in the first instance, for training organisations to the relevant FOI or LSI or affiliated associations, for individual pilots to the General Aviation Unit at ga.ga@caa.co.uk.

3. The CAA will keep this Exemption under constant review and react as necessary to the circumstances which are expected to change.

4. Recording of extension of privileges:
   (a) Licence holders: Recording of the extension of the recency validity period, should be subject to a briefing that can be conducted via preferably an electronic audio-visual link or telephone or in person maintaining social distancing requirements, covering theoretical knowledge and flight safety subjects.

   The confirmation of this briefing is to be recorded in the logbook in one of the following methods:

   (i) the instructor will confirm by electronic means this to be printed and affixed to the logbook; or.

   (ii) the instructor will confirm by letter this to be affixed to the logbook; or

   (iii) the instructor to make an entry in the logbook; and

   (iv) a copy of this exemption notice is to be carried as part of their licence

   (b) To demonstrate compliance with Part MED aircrew should carry their (expired) medical certificate and a copy of the exemption notice as part of their licence.

5. It is the intention of the CAA to resume normal licensing requirements as soon as the situation returns to normality.
